

Stadt Bern

Fachstelle für Migrations- und
Rassismusfragen

Neu in Bern? New in Bern? Нещодавно переїхав до Берна?
Nouveau à Berne? ¿Nuevo en Berna? Novo u Bernu?
Banoni në Bernë? பெர்னில் புதியா? Bern'de yeni misiniz?

جديد في برن؟ Nuovo a Berna? Novo em Berna?
ԿԵ՞՞՞՞՞՞՞ ԿՈՆԸՆ? Li Berne nû? Недавно переехал в Берн?

Have you recently moved to Bern from abroad?

The Fachstelle für Migrations- und Rassismusfragen FMR invites you to two information sessions. Come find out about important offers and resources from the City of Bern. You can ask questions and state your concerns directly with representatives from different organisations.

Work and vocational training: Thursday, March 16th, 2023

- Where can I find help in my job search?
- Who can help me with my application?
- What are my career options?
- What can I do if I am unemployed?

6.00 – 8.30 pm

BFF Aula, Kapellenstrasse 1, 3011 Bern

Please register by March 9th!

Important information

Cost: Free of charge

Childcare is available on site.

The events will be conducted in basic German, with translations in English and Ukrainian.

Translation in other languages by request only.

Questions? Contact us:

Fachstelle für Migrations- und Rassismusfragen

Aisa Martinez

031 321 77 49

www.bern.ch/neuinbern

Health: Thursday, March 30th, 2023

- Can I get financial assistance to pay for health insurance?
- What psychological services are available?
- Who will support me with questions about my child's development?
- What options are there for older people?

6.00 – 8.30 pm

BFF Aula, Kapellenstrasse 1, 3011 Bern

Please register by March 23th!

Information and Registration in English, auf Deutsch, українською

Kanton Bern
Canton de Berne

These information sessions are supported by the Gesundheits-Sozial und Integrationsdirektion of the Canton of Bern as part of Program S.